QUARANTINE AT EGYPTIAN AND CONTINENTAL PORTS.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made for passing the Company's Steamers through the Suez Canal in QUARANTINE, thus avoiding any detention in Egypt. The Homeward Mails are now being landed at Venice, but the QUARANTINE which is still imposed at this and all other CONTINENTAL PORTS prevents the landing of Passengers, and those travelling by the Company's Steamers are advised to remain on board the Vessel which calls at MARSEILLES en route—stopping a few hours only to discharge Cargo—and proceed in her direct to London, thus avoiding all QUARANTINE delays and inconveniences.

The Passengers of the Steamers will be accommodated, and they will not call at MALTA or GIBRALTAR.

This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kangxi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.

A Supplement, arranged for being bound and used by itself, and containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Surnames, will be published and sold separately.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

THIS paper is now issued every day.
The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum, delivered in Hongkong, or less, and the China Mail is sent including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guaranties of a large and ever-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great,
and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-structure in tone—is almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest, while on the other it deserves every aid
that can be given to it by foreigners.
Like English journals it contains Editorials, with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and advertisements for the above may be sent to

with him." In all there were 17 candidates. Some of them were "young-looking," others were in the prime of life, while three or four were very advanced in years. Several of them evidently relied upon their bulk and stature to recommend them; a few were very short, and one or two exceedingly thin; most of them, however, appeared to be men of nerve and activity. The contrast in the exteriors of the candidates was marked; the majority being working men, though there were applicants who possessed that bearing which told that they came from more refined classes of society. A well-known criminal lawyer—Mr. Pollock—they proposed to undertake. The Sheriff, having seen all of them, five were requested to remain, the others being told that their services would not be required. Each of the selected five then had a second interview of longer duration, when all the details of the appointment were discussed. Those testimonials were retained, and they were informed that they would be communicated with by letter in the course of a few days. One of the men, James Berry, of Thorpe-street, Shearbrick, Bradford is sanguine that he will be appointed. He was one of the five selected candidates who discussed the matter with the Sheriff, with whom he said he had "acred upon the price."

Berry once assisted Marwood at an execution at Leeds. He is a man of about 30, of middle height and rather slight build. Another of the candidates who stands a fair chance is a man named Taylor, a builder, residing at Lincoln. This person was intimate with Marwood, and, as he stated, "had been with him." The other three candidates declined to give their names until they knew the result, one of them stating that he feared that he was applying for the office public would probably injure him in his business.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.
TENTH YEAR.

THIS REVIEW, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history and literature, has been continued by the Editor, Mr. H. B. Parker, who has added to it a new and valuable feature, the "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," which has reached its eleventh volume. The Review discusses those topics which are of interest to the minds of students of the "Far East," and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel, by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give criticisms embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Notes and Queries are still continued, and form an important mode of obtaining from the Editor, Mr. H. B. Parker, and from the Correspondents, the latest and most accurate information on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is as a rule cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Dr. Chalmers, E. H. Balfour, Messrs. Balfour, Watterson, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jackson, Giles, and Pitt, all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subjects.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and entertaining Review."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

"The China Review  has an excellent table of contents."—Cathartic Empire.

"The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourably if not advantageously comparison, with preceding numbers."—Cathartic Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."—Northern Herald.

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterizes that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritzsche, on 'The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking,' showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. 'Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa,' by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic of Man-Hua,' and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting."—Northern Daily News.

"A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize."—Chrysanthemum.

"The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chinese' treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr. E. H. Balfour's 'Short Journeys in Szechuen' are continued, and a goodly instalment of those travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length, entitled 'The Emperor Ching, founder of the Chinese Empire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which 'On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."—H.K. Daily Press.

Trimmer's Oriental Record contains the following notices of the China Review:—The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbourhood countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Chinese Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, and it is not surprising that the public is as now provided extremely desirably, and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are so generally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors.

Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese postman, which is the eleventh entry, Su Tung-ping, by Mr. E. C. Bowen, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Boddie notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that 'Notes' are now assiduously cultivated, and who are so generally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors.

1. That the sender duly observed all the conditions of Registration required.

2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong envelope.

3. That application was made to the Postmaster General of Hongkong immediately the loss was discovered, the envelope being invariably forwarded with such application unless it also is lost.

4. That the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss occurred whilst the correspondence was in the custody of the British Postal administration in China, that it was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender, by destruction by fire, or shipwreck, nor by the dishonesty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Hongkong Post Office.

5. No compensation can be paid for mere damage to fragile articles such as portraits, watches, handkerchiefs, &c., which reach their destination, although in a broken or deteriorated condition.
